Washington, Jan. 7 .- Arthur Beau re, United States Minister to Bogota that the reports about danger to the safety of the American legation in Bogota had been greatly exaggerated Mr. Beaupre also said that in his opin-ion, judging from the quiet conditions prevailing at the Colombian capital when he left, there was little danger of war on the isthmus. A dispatch to Dr. Herran, Colombian charge d'affaires, received today from Paris, said that a French tribunal had been appealed to by an agent of Col-ombia with a view to preventing the transfer of the Panama Canal company's rights on the isthmus to the American Government without the consent of Colombia. Counsel of the Colombian Government, according to the dispatch, assured the agent he thought there was good ground for believing the effort to prevent the trans-fer would be successful.

The step, it is said, is with the full cognizance of the Colombian authori-ties and was instituted by an agent of omnious preparations were reeral Reyes and Dr. Herran. MOVING RUSSIAN TROOPS. Maj. Nathan, an officer of the British army who was second in command of railway transportation in the Transvaul during the Boer war, has arrived in Peking. He traveled over the Siberlan railway with the special view of ascertaining the possibilities of the road for the transportation of troops and supplies in the event of war.

GREAT AMOUNT OF DATA. Maj. Nathan made careful observalons and collected a great amount of data. His opinion, based on his ob-servations, is that the railroad would break down and that its naministration would find itself in hopeiess con-fusion within, a week under the stress of war emergencies.

TERMS OF REJOINDER. The Government is silent concerning the terms of the Russian rejoinder. A high authority here, however, says that the reply is unsatisfactory to Japan, especially in its features bear-ing upon the question of Korea. He says that the Russian Government in its communication, expresses a desire for a peaceful settlement of the matters in dispute.

TAKEN UNDER CONSIDERATION. Japan has taken the reply under consideration and if convinced that Russia's protestations are honest and that there is a chance for peace, she will continue the negotiations. At the same time the ministry is unqualifiedly op-posed to a long delay, [TRIBUNE SPECIAL] Rawlins, Wyo, Jan. 7.—The State Board of Charlties and Reform has appointed two chaplains for the State prison here this year. Rev. E. E. Giffon has been reappointed as Frotestant chaplain and Rev. Frather Delahunty as Catholic chaplain. They will conduct services as heretofore, the Catholic chaplain preaching the last Sunday in the month, and the salary of EW a year divided proportionately. Police, Anticipating the Action, Had Successfully Spirited the Prisoner Away From the City Jail Only Thirty Minutes Before.

ynching Shockley, the suspected murderer of Motorman Gleason and Conductor Brighton were about a half hour too late to carry their plans into execution last night. About 8:30 o'clock Shockley was secretly taken from the city jail. A few minutes after 9 o'clock a delegation of a score or more of determined looking street car men from the mob which had gathered at the front door of the city hall, entered the place and demanded the prisoner. They vere told that he was not there, that he had been taken to the penitentiary. The men were skeptical at first and declined to take the word of the officers in the matter. Then Sergeant Roberts proposed that they select a committee of five to look through the jail to satwanted was not there. The proposition was accepted, after some argument the committee was appointed, the five men were shown through the jail and after satisfying themselves that Shock-ley was not in the prison, they returned and reported the fact to their friends and the mob quietly dispersed.

CROWD EVER PRESENT.

From the time of Shockley's arrest at 4 o'clock vesterday afternoon unti-about 9:30 last evening. When it became certain that the prisoner had been removed from the jall, there was a crowd of from fifty to 200 people hanging about the front of the city hall building. During the early part of the even-ing the crowd was composed largely of persons drawn to the place merely by curiosity, and there were no indica-tions of an organized attempt being made to gath possession of the pris-oned. Soon after the dinner hour, however, the uniform caps of street car employees began to show more numerously in the crowd, and knots of street car men could be seen on the principal streets. Gradually these began to gravitate in the direction of the jail and it was noted as they assem-bled that the men had removed the distinguishing numbers from their caps. Aside from this precaution no attempt was made by the street car employees to conceal their identity. Nor did they hesitate to speak out boldly concerning their intentions. They were determined to lynch the man who they believed had killed their two feliow employees, if by any possibility they could reach him. A few there were who counseled against hasty action on account of the element of doubt to which it seemed that the man arrested with the security but they were rested might be entitled, but they were greatly in the minority. The great ma-jority were in a freezy of indignation over the terribly cold-blooded which had snuffed out the lives of their two beloved comrades and were unwilling to listen to the arguments of pos-sible innocence. There is no doubt, however, that these arguments did serve to delay organized action and very probably saved Shockley from meeting death last night.

OFFICERS WERE ANXIOUS. Inside the police station there were evidences of apprehension on the part of the police officials as the businesslike preparations of the street car men came to their cars. The outer doors of the city hall were kept locked and officers were on guard to refuse admission to anyone who could not show conclusively that he had business in the building and that it was of a peaceable nature. More than a dozen officers, including policemen and deputy sher-iffs were in the building, prepared to President and Mrs. Reoseveit. It was largely attended fully 2500 persons crowding letto the house during the two hours of the reception. Invited to meet the diplomatic corps were the Cabinet, the Supreme court, both houses of Congress, officers of the army and navy and others. stration futile. The front door of the station was after that left unlocked and there were no policemen on guard either in the hallway or about the jail. A sigh of hallway or about the jail.
